THE BULLETIN.

THE CONVENTION.

HORACE GREELEY FOR PRESIDENT.

B. GRATZ BROWN FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

A dispatch from Mr. Henry Winter to John Antrim, announces that Horace Greeley was nominated for President and B. Gratz Brown for vice president.

The nomination for president was made on the sixth ballot. On the fifth ballot Adams was ahead but on the sixth, state after state threw their votes for Greeley and he was nominated amid great enthusiasm.

MORNING SESSION.
CINCINNATI, O., May 2, 10 A. M.—The hall and galleries were well filled. A feeling of uneasiness is expressed by many in anticipation of an acrimonious discussion to-day.

ANTI-GREELEY MEMBERS.
The anti-Greeley members of the New York delegation will offer a protest against the action of the majority in voting to cast the vote of the entire state for Greeley. An effort is anticipated in the convention to overrule that motion and to assert the right of each delegate to press his individual preference.

NOTABLE LADIES.
Susan B. Anthony and Mrs. Laura De Force Gordon have just entered and taken seats on the platform amidst cheers and hisses.

CALLED TO ORDER.
The convention was called to order at 10:20 by the temporary chairman. The chair announced that there were seats for the delegates present from Wyoming, Montana and Dakota territories. He also urged quiet and order as indispensable to hearing in so large a hall. He requested everybody to keep seated, unless they rose to speak, and in the latter case to announce the name and state of the speaker.

A Missouri delegate urged a committee on permanent organization of one from each state.

Fitz Henry Warren, of Iowa, moved to amend by including the territories.

After a brief discussion the amendment was carried, and the motion as amended was adopted.

Mr. Cochran, of New York, moved for a committee of nine to draft rules and regulations for the government of the convention, meantime the rules of the house of representatives be adopted.

Mr. Touney, of New York, moved that all propositions relating to principle and platform be referred without debate to the committee on resolutions when appointed.

Mr. McClure, of Pennsylvania, moved that a committee of one from each state and territory constitute the committee on resolutions.

Mr. Atkinson, of Massachusetts, moved to amend by making it a committee of two from each state only. Mr. Atkinson modified his amendment so as to confine the committee to one from each state and territory.

Mr. Grosvenor, of Missouri, urged the importance of immediate appointment of the committee on credentials in advance or the appointment of the committee on resolutions.

The chair concurred in this view, as it was their first duty to constitute the convention by ascertaining its regularity. It was necessary, he said, to know who its members were.

Mr. McClure withdrew his motion, at the request of Mr. Cochran, who moved that a committee on credentials from each state and territory be appointed.

RESOLUTION COMMITTEE.
The delegation from Pennsylvania moved the appointment of a committee of one from each state and territory to which shall report resolutions for the action of this body. A delegate moved to amend by making it two from each state. Not seconded. The original motion was put and carried.

A PROTEST.
Judge Selden of New York: I hold in my hand a protest from some of my friends of New York against the action of the majority of the delegates of New York by which some delegates were improperly excluded, and which I ask to have referred to the committee on credentials. Permission granted.

The Chairman: There are three committees that are now to be filled by one delegate to be appointed from each state and territory: committee on order and business, committee on permanent organization and committee on resolutions and platform.

A Delegate: Before the roll is called I suggest the committee on credentials be requested to prepare the report for action of the committee.

Col. Nichols called the roll of states and territories on which the names of committee-men were reported.

A delegate moved to amend the motion to adjourn by substituting 3 o'clock.

Delegate from Indiana: It was said yesterday that this convention "meant business." He wanted to proceed with business, and hoped there would be no adjournment at present. The question of adjournment being put, was voted down.

Mr. Cochran, and other chairmen of delegations, asked permission for their committee to retire, which was granted.

A colored delegation from Kentucky, after making several ineffectual attempts at last succeeded in catching the attention of the chairman, and said as there is no business before this house I move we hear from Hon. Cassius M. Clay of Kentucky. [Loud cheers]

Mr. Clay: I am not going to make a speech. [Applause]

A delegation from Pennsylvania moved that when this convention take a recess it be till 3 o'clock.

Delegate: I offer an amendment that we adjourn till 3 o'clock.

Delegate from Massachusetts: It must be allowed the committee to prepare their report, and if we desire to do our own business in a practical manner, we must have time for it, and time for dinner. I therefore trust the convention, when it adjourns, it will be till 3 o'clock.

A delegation from Ohio desired it to be understood that, if this motion be put, it does not mean to adjourn.

Mr. Hickman of Pennsylvania: We have not come here to stay a month or a week. We have come here on business, and if all the delegates to this convention feel as I do, they mean business and they will accomplish it. [Cries of louder, louder]

The chairman: The gentleman cannot speak louder. [Cries, "We can't hear"]

Chairman: It is not important that you should. [Loud laughter and cheers]

Mr. Hickman continued: I have been at conventions of this kind before. I know just what the trouble is. I have passed through these ordeals, and I wish to say to you that promptness is essential to the attainment of great objects. I come here neither with loves nor hates, partialities nor prejudices. I am ready to vote for any man who will be able to accomplish the common objects we have in view. I have been able to sit in congress for twenty-four hours upon a bowl of soup, and I think we can sit here till we can accomplish our ends. Let us have no adjournment.

The motion to adjourn was here renewed and carried with loud cheers.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
The convention reassembled at 3 o'clock, Judge Mathews in the chair. The large hall was densely crowded with people in every portion, large numbers of ladies lending interest to the scene by their presence in the galleries.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.
The report of the committee on permanent organization was presented by Judge Spaulding, of Ohio, the name of Senator Schurz as permanent president being received with a storm of cheers and applause. The report was unanimously adopted as follows: Permanent president, Hon. Carl Schurz; Missouri; vice-president, Alabama, Thos. L. Murt; Arkansas, Q. Underwood; California, W. M. Rickerby; Connecticut, Hon. David Clark; Delaware, none; Florida, none; Georgia, R. L. Malt; Illinois, John Wentworth; Indiana, Geo. W. Julian; Iowa, J. A. Romberg; Kansas, Hon. R. J. Crawford; Kentucky, Laban Moore; Louisiana, L. T. Delacelle; Maine, L. W. Perkins; Massachusetts, Hon. W. H. Burleigh; Michigan, Geo. W. F. Bartlett; Minnesota, O. P. Clarke; Missouri, Robt. Cordick; Mississippi, Col. H. Corke; Nebraska, Isaac Forbes; Nevada, Geo. G. Lyon; New Hampshire, Wm. H. Gove; New Jersey, J. Miller McKim; New York, Thos. Haine; North Carolina, H. H. Hethar; Ohio, O. Pollett; Oregon, J. W. Johnson; Pennsylvania, M. B. Lowry; Rhode Island, E. Harris; South Carolina, W. W. Wheeler; Tennessee, Gilbert Mayers; Texas, Morgan Hamilton; Vermont, Maj. J. H. Sausbury; Virginia, Geo. E. West Virginia, Ward H. Lamson; Wisconsin, W. Doe; District of Columbia, Joseph Casey; Dakota territory, F. C. Everts, Principal Secretaries; Gen. W. E. McLane, of Indiana; John H. Davidson, of Minnesota; D. S. Wright, of Maine; H. Rhodes, of Ohio.

Senator Schurz was conducted to the platform, his appearance there being greeted with hurrahs, by hand-clapping and tumultuous, long-continued cheering, numerous delegates rising from their seats and waving their hats. His reception was in the highest degree complimentary, being little less than an ovation. He was presented to the convention by Judge Mathews, and spoke at length.

REPORT ON CREDENTIALS.
Annexed was the report of the committee on credentials presented: Mr. President, the committee on credentials respectfully report the following persons whose names are hereto attached and contained in the schedule numbering one to forty-one inclusive, are entitled to seats in this convention, to wit: Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut, Maryland, Virginia, Louisiana, Tennessee, Missouri, North Carolina, Wisconsin, California, Nebraska, Alabama, Texas, Oregon, Michigan, Delaware, Illinois, West Virginia, Kansas, Mississippi, Ohio, Kentucky, Georgia, Nebraska, South Carolina, Vermont, Minnesota, Iowa, Colorado, Arkansas, Florida, Utah, District of Columbia, Dakota, Montana, New York, New Jersey, and in the case of the contest in the New York delegation, fully and carefully considering the subject matter of the protest, we report the following resolutions:

Resolved that in the opinion of this committee the contestants in the convention from the state of New York are not entitled to seats in this convention, and in relation to the California delegation, we report the following resolution:

Resolved that in the absence of such credentials as seemed sufficiently regular to credit the name of Mrs. Laura De Force Gordon as a delegate to the convention from California, but recommended that she and other ladies present be tendered the courtesy of the hall of the convention. That further, Col. W. W. Rickerby is entitled to cast the entire vote for California, and that other contestants are not entitled to seats in this convention. All of which is respectfully submitted.

Signed, Thomas J. Worrell, chairman; Byron Sherry, Robt. G. Fleming, secretaries.

A motion was made to accept the report of the committee, with the exception of the resolution relating to California.

Mr. Phillips of Illinois: I understand that a convention of a few gentlemen in a county in California met and appointed a gentleman named as member of this convention. He had learned that other gentlemen were not citizens of California. Some of them had not been citizens of California.

A Delegate: Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. We are not discussing California resolutions.

The Chairman: We are discussing the whole proposition. [Cries of Question! Question!]

The Chairman: Point of order is overruled.

Mr. Phillips, continuing: Some of these gentlemen have not resided in California for many years. Now, gentlemen of the convention, is it in your power to conform to the high principles that brought us here, and in the name of which we are assembled, to attempt to manipulate the delegation from the state of California not justly entitled to seats. [Continued cries of "question, question"]

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RULES.
When this episode came to a close the committee on rules submitted their report as follows, adopted unanimously: The committee organized by electing Theodore Tilton, of N. Y., chairman, and H. L. Burnet, of Ohio secretary. All but nine of the states were represented. The committee have the honor to report as follows:

1. That rules and regulations governing the house of representatives of the United States shall be the rules governing this body; provided that no delegate shall be entitled to speak more than once upon the same question, and shall be limited to five minutes, except the mover thereof, who, in closing the debate, shall be entitled to five minutes more.

2. The delegation from each state shall cast the entire vote of the state, and every delegate shall represent such proportion of the entire vote as he shall be of the delegation present, and his vote shall be reported to the convention by the chairman of the delegation as cast by the delegates.

3. In voting for candidates for president and vice president of the United States, the majority of all the votes shall be requisite to a choice.

4. To facilitate the business of the convention and days shall not be called but a division of the convention may be had by a call of the states.

Theodore Tilton, chairman; A. L. Burnett, secretary.

EVENING SESSION.
The convention came together promptly at 7:30 o'clock, the attendance being even greater than in the afternoon. Every available inch of space was occupied, there being about two thousand ladies present. Promptly at the appointed hour Senator Schurz called the convention to order, saying that the committee on resolutions would not be able to report the result of their labors tonight, in consequence of the large number of papers laid before them. He suggested that the time be occupied by making the speeches accompanying nomination.

The committee on resolutions requested that the adjournment be until 11 o'clock Friday.

Mr. Cochran, of New York moved to proceed with the presentation of candidates each person making the nomination be allowed ten minutes for a speech. The nomination was put and decided in the affirmative by a close vote.

Mr. Rickerby, of California, excluded by the report, made some remarks against many interruptions and much impatience on the part of the convention. He asserted that he had been a resident of the state for 22 years, and of the city of San Francisco for the past 10 years, and intended to reside nowhere else. He claimed to be secretary of the state central committee of California, and to have been requested to come here and take his seat in the convention. He considered that it was an outrage that a gentleman who only represented a little mining district in the interior of the state, be allowed to carry the whole state of California in his pantaloon pocket.

The chairman of the committee on credentials arose, after repeated calls, and stated that the question of the admissibility of certain California delegates, was disposed of in committee meeting. It was there shown that those who asked to be admitted were not residents of the state, and had not been for one to ten years. The committee found that Judge Rickerby alone was entitled to admission, and they so reported.

While the debate was proceeding, Mrs. Gordon, intent on pushing the woman's rights movement, and graciously waving her hand towards Mrs. Gordon, said there was a delegate from California waiting to be heard.

Mr. Schurz recognizing her, then said he would state with great regret that the convention had decided that the lady was not a delegate. She, still persisting in her attempt to speak, a storm of hisses arose all over the hall intermingled with some exclamations to "get out."

After a debate upon the tariff question, and some other windy labor the convention adjourned till 10 o'clock Friday morning.
